Crimson Down to 12 Points—Yale Has an Easy Time With Amherst and Princeton Walks Over With Stevens—Other Games. All of the big 'Varsity football elevens played practice games yesterday and all of their opponents were whitewashed. Harvard made only 12 points against Williams at Camwhich was quite a surprise. Columbla's first game of the season resulted in the scoring of only 11 points against Rutgers, just half as many points as Sanford's men scored a year ago in this annual fixture. Yale disposed of Amherst quite easily to the tune of 27 to 0, which is further evidence that the cen is in pretty fair shape university of pennsylvania, 47; F, and M., 0. The Princeton Tigers got under way by administering a sound heating to the Stevens Institute boys, 40 to 0, but the Tigers were not put to a real test and the enthusiasts will have to wait until a later day to secure a good line on their make-up. The usual walkover was enjoyed by the University of Pennsylvania eleven n the game with Franklin and Marshall, the figures at the end of the game being 47 to 0, the highest score of the day Lafayette defeated Ursinus College, 35 to 0, while Cornell's second team got away with the Rochester University eleven, 6 to 0. The results of the principal games:

COLUMBIA'S FIRST GAME.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 3.—The playing of Wright at guard and the dashing end runs of Weekes and Berrien saved the day for Columbia this afternoon. The unexpectedly sharp and stubborn resistance put up by the Rutgers football eleven forced the New York collegians to play their hardest to win by a score of 11 to 0. Columbia had the weight and the strength, but Rutgers had the activity and the dash and the better team work. The local players were on their toes all the time while the Columbia players did not get rie of their lethargy until well along in the second half. Coach Sanford was not enthused with the playing of his men.

of their lethargy until well along in the second half. Coach Sanford was not enthused with the playing of his men.

After five minute's play in the first half Weekes circled his own right end and with little interference ran fifty-five yards for a touchdown. Much of the remainder of the half saw Columbia busy in trying to withstand Rutgers' vigorous attack. Columbia's right wing was weak. Berrien made the second touchdown in the second half after splendid end runs by himself and Weekes. Wright helped both with splendid interference. Bruce missed the second goal from a difficult angle. Austin did good work for Columbia and so did Van Hoevenberg. Poland. Conger, Stewart and Mann for Rutgers were a source of much trouble to Columbia. Poland played a star game attackle. He was good at advancing the ball and broke through several times and downed the opposing backs for a loss. There was not much fumbling, only a little punting, but a good deal of offside play and holding in the line.

CORNELL, 6: ROCHESTER, 0.

ITHACA, Oct. 3.—Cornell's second eleven bested Rochester University on Percy Field this afternoon by the small score of 6 to a The game was uninteresting, being characterized by loose work, much fumbling and poor handling of kicks. Coach Haughton was anxious to see what the "scrubs" could do as Rochester is probably as weak as any team Cornell will meet this season. Coffin was tried at full back and did not seem so much at home as in his old position of half back. He had many opportunities to kick, but was slow in geting the punts off. He is a stronger kloker, however, and if he overcomes this slowness he may make a valuable substitute to Capt. Starbuck. The 'Varsity lined up for a snappy signal practice after the game, and ran through the plays in good shape. Both Alexander and Starbuck were in the game, and The line-up:

YALE, 27; AMHERST, 0.

New Haven, Oct. 3.—The Yale 'Varsity eleven defeated Amherst this afternoon, the score being 27 to 0. The Amherst eleven was crippled by the loss of three of the regular players and looked very light in weight as compared to Yale's giant rush line. Sharpe, the big Yale half back, made a 95-yard run and did all sorts of brilliant things. The Amherst boys were very good natured.

"Well," said one of their rushers, "we made them work five minutes to get their first touchdown. That was worth coming down for."

Yale again used nearly two elevens in the game. All of the backs and both ends and one of the tackle positions were changed in the second half. The afternoon was not enough for July and the players perspired like men in a Turkish bathhouse. The Amherst men complained of the heat so much that the time of the second half was reduced from 15 to 10 minutes. The conclusion of the Amherst boys and their two coaches, Warren and Moulton, both former Harvard players, was that Yale may have the stuff for a great eleven, but she has a lot of football to learn before she will play the game as it should be played.

Yale was again heavily penalized for the off-side play of her rush line. The fenture of Yale's play was the interference. It was vigorous, but it did not always work well. The Amherst boys once got on Yale's 25-yard line through a fumble by Cook. They gave up the ball there on downs and lost a chance to score, McCoy did some good punting that the summary:

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 3.—Lafayette used many men in the opening game with Ursinus to-day and defeated the visitors by a score of 35 to 0. The Easton men could have easily added to that score had they tried, but Coach Newton instructed them to try various formations, which were used mainly for practice. HARVARD, 12: WILLIAMS, 0 CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 3.—The Harvard 'Varsity eleven had a relapse to-day. Its sharp work in practice yesterday had created great expectations. They remained unrealized, for in the game this afternoon on Soldiers' Field in twelve-minute halves the 'Varsity could only score twice against Williams, the score being 12 to 0. At no time was Harvard's playing up to the mark reached yesterday. In the first half it was slashing enough but ineffective As in the Wesleyan game, Harvard was forced to take the defensive in the second half. But Williams was somewhat stronger than Wesleyan. In the line Hatch made some superb tackles, Simnons outclassed J. Liwrence, while Cullinane was Cam beil's equal. Behind the line Lawrence and Graves in the first half and Jacckel in the second half made large gains through both sides of Harvard's line. Harvard was repeatedly forced to punt and once was held for downs. In the second half the new men were very erratic. Four times Harvard paid ten yards distances for off-side play and one five yard penalty for interference with a fair catch. Capt. Daly made two inane attempts to kick a goal from the field, the second one being tried from the very centre of the field. The line-up: HARVARD, 12: WILLIAMS, O.

STEAM YACHT APPRODITE HERE.

Col. Oliver H. Payne's Boat Makes 368 Knots in a Day on Her Atlantic Voyage. The steam yacht Aphrodite owned by Col. Oliver H. Payne arrived here yesterday afternoon after an extended cruise in British waters. The Aphrodite made a remarkably good passage home. She left Bristol on Sept. 22 and stopped at St. Michaels for coal, leaving there on the 27th. She had fine weather throughout the voyage and one day ran 38s knots. Her smallest day's run was 356 knots, which is a fraction under fifteen knots an hour. Col. Payne's guests on the voyage were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sage and Miss Sage of Albany, Payne Whitney, Mr. Kernochan and Mr. Turnbull.

The Aphrodite left New York on July 10, and since that time she has been cruising around the British Islands. Col. Payne and his friends visited Scotland, landing at several Scotch ports.

The Aphrodite is the largest steam yacht that has been built in this country. She is 302 feet 6 inches over all,200 feet on the water line, 35 feet 6 inches beann, 20 feet 3½ inches depth and 15 feet 9 inches draught. She was built in 1898 at the Bath IronWorks from designs by C. R. Hanscom and is driven by vertical triple expansion surface condensing engines with cylinders 28, 48½ and 70 inches respectively in diameter, by 38 inches stroke. She is bark rigged. News of the Wheelmen.

There are to be two automobile shows in New York this year, both of them in November, one at Madison Square Garden and one at the Grand Central Palace. One is under the auspices of a promoter, the other under those of the Automobile Club of America, the head-quarters of which are soon to be temporarily transferred from the Waldorf-Astoria to the Astor Court Building preliminary to the selection of a permanent home, the Intent concerning which was related in The Sun some time ago.

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics have a wheeling organization and have determined upon a century run for next Sunday in which every starter is to finish. The idea is that even the Juniors of the O U. A. M. will not have any riders dropping out because of broken machines or punctured tires for that matter. The route selected is the regular Long Island course, starting from Bedford Rest and taking in Concy Island and Ridgewood. The Junior Mechanics have been wise enough to invite and obtain the services of D. M. Adee as chief pacemaker and those of Charley Earl, the K. C. W. racing man, as general manager. for the second day of the Jockey Club's autumnal meeting. Weather and track conditions were as good as on the opening day and followers of favorites were a little more successful. Two first choices scored and two more ran fast enough to earn second money.

Quantity rather than quality was represented in the Hurricana for two-year-olds at five furlongs, and as selling con ditions and allowances prevailed, thirteen of the eighteen youngsters named over night accepted. The Canadian colt Basuto was tipped as the "real thing," and closed a strong favorite over Sweet Tooth and Tammany Chief. Templeton up-thing." and closed a strong favorite over Sweet Tooth and Tannmany Chief. Templeton tiptoed the favorite in the break from the barrier and won by a head after a prolonged drive. Sweet Tooth barely scrambled into the money, three lengths away and just a short head in front of Carnelian. The winner's time ties the best ever made for the stake, by Handsel, with 100 pounds up, in 1807, and stamps the St. Saviour filly as something above the ordinary.

As customary at this stage of the season when good light cannot be reckoned on after a o'clock, the jumping feature preceded the other events. This time it was a hurdle race at two miles, and the favorite, Hlondyke, came home on the bit from Ben Eder and The Burlington Route, which finished at six-length intervals after a somewhat tame and slow race. Next in order came a handicap dash for all ages down the last five furlongs of the Eclipse course. McCafferty's Himtine ruled favorite, but finished outside the money. Misaba made her usual bluff and came down the first hill like a whirlwind. Then Lady Uncas, the heavily played second choice, rushed to the front and Mitchell kept her fully extended until she had won by a length and a half. His Royal Highness made a better bluff at hanging on than usual and took place honors by three lengths from Gold Lace. Lady Uncas rather sturfled the watch holders by reaching the Judges' stand in 88 seconds.

Rolling Her lived too closely up to his name in the fourth race and after winning he was disqualified on complaint of Mitchell, who was nearly bowled over on the favorite, Criterion, in a bumping match a furlong from home. Templar proved; to be the best of an ordinary lot of maidens in the fifth race and the plungers were in touch. Godfrey won the last event from flagfall to finish, but had to be driven out to beat Dolando a head. Summary:

Ring-Times Make a Record for Three Heats by Two-Year-Olds-Game Boy Wins Pacing Event and Graduates Into 2:10 Class. LEXINGTON, Oct. 3.-This was the second tay of the fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and the sport was excellent. The 2:10 list received two new performers. A colt, the dam of which was passed out as rubbish from the sale ring, won the Futurity in the most remarkable time ever trotted in the race. Driver Fred Noble was fined $500 for laying up heats in the 2.12 trot with Georgeanna. There was no wind, the track was in splendid condition and everything was right for an ideal day's sport. The card for the day was inaugurated with the $5.000 Futurity for two-year-old trotters. It brought out a field of six-four from Kentucky one from Montana and the other from Massachusetts. Priola, the bay filly from Marcus Daly's Bitter Root farm with Joe Rea in the sulky, was selected as favorite in the overnight and anti-post pooling.

On the seventh effort Starter Walker caught them in good alignment Mary P. Leyburn had the pole, followed closely by Jay McGregor This pair made the race all the way to the wire, Mary winning handliy by a length. Jay McGregor was a length in front of Walnut Hall, who for running was set back to last. In the second heat Priola and Mary Leyburn were on even terms at the first turn, but on the far turn the Montana filly went into the air. Benyon went to work on Walnut Hall and as they passed the three-quarters sent him by Jay McGregor and after Mary Leyburn. They turned into the stretch on even terms and Walnut Hall landed the heat by a length and a haif, with Mary Leyburn three lengths in front of Jay McGregor. Gr.ce Arlington got the flag and Jack Roche and Priola barely got inside. Walnut Hall took the lead in the third heat and heid it through the journey, winning easily from Mary P. Leyburn by three lengths. Jay McGregor was third, two lengths back. Priola and Jack Roche got the flag. Walnut Hall received first and fourth money. In many respects it was the greatest two-year-old face of the year. The times, 2:21, 2:20% and 2:20%, were the fastest ever made for three heats by two-year-olds the greatest two-year-old frace of the year. The times, 2:21, 2:20% and 2:20%, were the fastest ever made for three heats by two-year-olds. The winner was bred, reared and is owned by Mr. L. V. Harkness at Walnut Hall Farm, from which the coit gets its name. Mr. Harkness has accomplished something never previously done by any owner. He has won both Futurities at this meeting and with Fereno, winner of the three-year-old Futurity of yesterday, he won this two-year-old stake last year. Benyon received the fourth money out of the stake as a present from the owner. Walnut Hall's dam. Maggie Yeager, was offered by auction at Cleveland and sold for 800 and the buyer disappeared after paying proved to be the winner of the choice of the field. For the first heat Balmy L drew the pole. Game Boy won cut the money is a son of Electioneer and the mare is by Red Wilkes. Champions Win Double Victory in Boston

By winning two games from the Bostons yesterday the Champion Brooklyns secured a lead safe enough to land the pennant again. If Hanlon's men win three out of their remaining seven games, they cannot lose the championship, even if the Pittsburgs win all of the eight games they still have to play. The Pittsburgs have been resting all this week because of the large number of Sunday games they played earlier in the season. They will resume operations at home with St. Louis on Saturday. The New Yorks were beaten in a close game by the Philadelphias and were further handicapped in their struggle to get out of last place. The Cincinnatis won easily from St. Louis and also tled McGraw's men for sixth place. The results: Brooklyn, 6: Boston, 4-Birst game, two games to-day the second being called at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness. Yeager had the Beaneaters guessing in the first game while Lewis was touched up for eight hits. In the third inning the Brooklyns got a single, a double, and a triple and together with a couple of bases on balls scored three runs. Boston tied the score in the sixth but a timely double by Jones sent two men home. The second game was marred by constant kicking and both Tenney and Dahlen were sent to the benches. The Bostons' first baseman walked up to the umpire and said: "Either you get out of the game or I do" "Then you do," replied Hurst, and Tenney sat down beside Selee. The score was three all up to the seventh inning when Hanlon's men got two runs through Lowe's error. The Bostons made a desperate nitempt to tie the score but had to be content with a single run. Trouble Among the New York Players. When Buck Ewing resigned the management of the New Yorks last summer it was explained that he was forced to get out because a certain clique was against him. It was said at the time that George Davis was the leader of this clique and when he was made manager he agreed to handle the clique so successfully that the New Yorks would climb out of last place But as the New Yorks have been unable to craw out of last place Manager Davis has resorted to the fining system. Several members of the clique, too, have been fined. The penalties of the clique, too, have been fined. The penalties have been inflicted not for dissipation but for errors and misplays and they have been distributed with a lavish hand. As a result there is just as much feeling against Davis among certain players as there was against Ewing.

The fact of the matter is that the New Yorks belong just where they are. The team started the season weaker than any other in the feague and Ewing was consequently handleapped because of a lack of strong material. Ewing was not at fault but had to go because he was not "in with the gang." Davis is not to blame either because of the team's inability to get out of last hole, but the players say that he has been laying on the fines to square himself. out of last place Manager Davis has resorted to

BROOKLYN.

It must be admitted that the New Yorks under It must be admitted that the New Yorks under Davis have played better ball than under Ewing, but the lack of material still remains a big handicap.
Davis's unpopularity with the players has resulted in the latter taking a vote whereby the manager will not be permitted to take the trip to Cuba with them, along with the Brooklyns. It is believed that Davis will be upheld by the club officials and that several members of the team will be traded off because of the trouble. Gleason has been placed on the market and rumor has it that Grady and Doyle are also on the ragged edge. on the ragged edge.

NATIONAL LEAGUE AND AMERICAN ASSOCIATION Brooklyn at Boston, New York at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Cincinnati

this season.

The Pittsburg Club has protested all of the games recently played with the Cincinnatis because the Reds used Hartzell, the former American League outsider, whose services are in dispute between Cincinnati and Chicago.

Rain having caused a postponement of last Sunday's game between the West New York F. C. and the Poughkeepste team, the deciding game of the series between these clubs will be played next Sunday at the Weshawken grounds.

Princeton and Harvard Doubles Win Semi-

Final Matches in Intercollegiate Tournament. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3 .- The Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis tournament on the grounds of the Merion Cricket Club at flaverford progressed but slowly to-day. Only three matches were played. The weather was wretched, keeping the attendance down to a mere handful and making the courts damp and soggy. There was only one match played in the singles. R. D. Little, Princeton, scored an easy victory over Edwin Leonard, Harvard, in the first round. In the doubles Ogden and Shafer, Princeton, were beaten by the Harvard pair. Thomas and Ware, after some little trouble. Little and Alexander, Princeton, easily won from Russeil and Gilpin, Yale. This leaves Thomas and Ware, Harvard, and Little and Alexander, Princeton, to fight out the final.

At a meeting of the association held last evening, the following officers were elected: President Beals Wright, Harvard, Vice-President, W. J. Clothier, Swarthmore, Secretary, and Treasurer, H. A. Plummer, Tale, delegate to the U.S. N. L. T. A., R. D. Little, Princeton. Next year's tourney will take place at the Merion Cricket Club grounds in October. The following colleges were expelled from the association: Brown, Dartmouth, North Carolina, Stevens and Williams. Following is a summary of yesterday's play:
